This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Sean Robert Gordon who was born in New York Rockville Center on July 30, 1980 passed away on Saturday May 12, 2007..He was only 26 years old.

The son of Christine M.Gordon and Robert G. Gordon, was born on July 30, 1980..

Sean was a loving father, brother son and a grandson and I'm sure he could have been a great husband and a son in law too..

He graduated from Pine bush High school 1998..He spent four years in the U.S navy aboard the USS Thach and was stationed in San Diego, CA from 1998-2002 and achieved the ranks of MS3. He received commendations and awards as it follows: Armed Forces Expeditionary medal, Sea service deployment ribbon, navy and marine corps achievement medal, navy good conduct medal, national defense service award and a citation for superior performance of his duties on watch from 21 of May 1999-21 October 1999 by J.C Harris, commander, U.S Navy Commanding officer.

Sean was a father of two, his eldest son was born October 14, 1998 his name is Anthony Christopher Gordon, his youngest was born Fatima Angelina Gordon was born March 7,2003.they are both great children and they were the kids that you would easily love and adore.

He was a great b.f and I love him so dearly..he never puts me down nor fights with me we have our ups and down but in the end we would always make up and that's the most beautiful part of it..

He was a very helpful person eventhough he doesnt have anything he would still lend a hand nor find a way to help out..he would actually pick up a stray animal or a poor people he would take them in his house and feed them clothe them and even give them some money.

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. The overall mood is soft and romantic.

Thinking of you

July 30, 2008

My thoughts and prayers are with all who love and miss Sean. Your angel certinally captured many hearts, I feel as if I know him from the many wonderful memories, candles and condolences. He appears to be a fun loving guy with a big heart, and I am sure he would of been a wonderful dad. I can clearly see how much he is missed. I am yet to experience a first birthday without my son I can only imagine how very hard it is. I wish there where some words i could say to ease your heartache, I only pray that you find some comfort knowing that others care and will remember your wonderful Angel.

Sean a great friend

sean was an amazing man....full of life and eager to meet new people...with one of the kindest hearts i've ever had the pleasure of knowing...i knew that if i ever needed a shoulder to cry on or someone to talk to, that he would always be there...he truly was one of the few genuinely good people in this world...

sean...we all miss you like crazy...i wish that i could have told you how much i appreciated you before it was too late, but i'll say it now...you were such a good friend to me and it was honor for me to have known you...i love you and miss you.

A Kiss From Heaven

Within the heart of hearts a mother cries,
in hope the soul within her son reveals.

Reasons God would call this spirit home,
A Sacred place, a kiss with heaven's seal.

He reaches down to touch a heart that loves,
to ease the pain and say that it's alright.
He's warm and wrapped in peace with godly love,
even though he's far from earthly sight.

I speak to you my love my precious boy,
Ne'er be long when we shall breathe as one.
The air of unity...one gracious breath,
you sweet and caring, tender loving son.

Your brilliant smile is etched within our hearts,
sounds of every laugh within our mind.
Within our darkest moments all alone,
tis you my Sean that makes those moments shine.

To my dear beloved son Sean. You are the light of my life the heart of my heart. I thank God each day for His gift of you to me. You are much loved. Your two brothers, sister, grandma and pa, aunts and uncles friends, family will miss you so but keep you in our hearts.

You've touched so many people especially those who were in great need. Your kind heart was always there for those in need. You are alot like me in that way. You are my kiss from heaven and even if we live on this earth for 90 years it is a drop in the bucket compared to eternity..the day a ray of light comes to take me home to be with you again. I love you so very much..huggs and kisses, your mom.

Life seems so easy nowadays but I still think of you..When the wind blows the sky turns blue and when it pours...I feel your touch...every memory seemed to remind me of you...God I wish you are with me now...just the comfort of yours completes my day..and your touch saying things are alright..no worries...I can't be 2 years I still feel pain and I am still angry...

now I'm about to get married with someone who I think is not for me makes me backed out for a couple of times...my love for you was the strongest thing that a person could ever imagine..and I can't bear being with someone ...being with someone who is not you I miss Sean so much..why do you have to leave?

Mom's poems

Life is Too Short

Life is just too short! Why do we let small things in life stress us?
It is easy to get mad at someone but it's difficult to fall in love with someone.
It is easy to dislike people for what they believe in but it's difficult to appreciate in each other..
This life is so beautiful. We have God watching us, family and friends who care for each other..
We love each other in different ways- that is how God created us. To respect and love one another.

Life is just too short!!

Life is full of amazing miracles that god sends to our way.. Everything must be for a reason.
Life is maybe a test. Will we learn something in this life that will take us further in after life??..

God is strongest. God can make or break us. God can over power all powers.
God has given everyone an opportunity in this beautiful world. God loves us all even if we have made mistakes. God loves us. God made us..

Sometimes my guilt takes over me. But god must love me? Sometimes my dark sides grabs me to a different direction. But then again god always seems to be there. God seems to get me out of it.

God seems to be giving me many chances. God must love me??

Life is just too short!!

So why not enjoy every moment that god made for us.

God made this for us!!! God made this world so we can enjoy life-Nature-family-friends-and peace.

My point being- we were all put here for a reason. We were put here to cherish this beautiful world that god has created for us.

Life is just too short!
